

Families Are Invited to Attend the November PCCPTA General Meeting

Date: 11-17-2011 / Time: 6:15 p.m. (meeting at 7:00)

Location: Safety Harbor Middle School
901 First Avenue N, Safety Harbor

Join us for hospitality beginning at 6:15. Please bring your kids. We will be offering two programs this evening:

Adult program: Deputy Thomas Kelley from the Pinellas County Sheriff's Office will be sharing information on a wide range of topics dealing with the internet and online predators including:

- Social Networking appeal to kids
- Personal profile and message board danger signs
- Cyberbullying, Cyberstalking, Grooming, and Netlingo
- FDLE Sexual Predators/Offenders website
- Managing children's time online
- Internet safety tips

Kids Program: While adults attend PCCPTA general meeting and adults only program, children (ages 5 and up) may attend a separate adult supervised event in nearby room. Kids will learn how they can join the fight against bullying. This program will be taught by inspired teens. Why? Bullying is a huge issue in our community and around the world! Our aim is to educate.
