

Pinellas County Council PTA/PTSA

Community Service Award

2019 - 2020 School Year

The purpose of this award is to recognize some of the outstanding community service projects/events sponsored or supported by local units this year. Local units are invited to submit their special service programs.

Criteria: The local unit must not profit from the program or event. It must support the goals and objectives of PTA. The program must have gone beyond the local unit parameters to benefit children, youth or others in the community. Other organizations may be involved if the local unit is the primary organizer having a leadership role in the process.
