Pinellas County Council PTA/PTSA
President’s Theme Award

The purpose of this award is to recognize the local unit that has, through the programs and events they sponsored this year, best demonstrated a commitment to your PCCPTA President’s theme. 2016-2017 Theme: Education Is the Key to Unlock the Future. This theme was chosen to help bring focus back to the PTA mission, “making every child’s potential a reality…” and to help us be mindful and understanding regarding the diverse goals and aspirations of every child.

Criteria: This award is a comprehensive overview of the local unit accomplishments. The local unit must not profit from the program or event. It must support the goals and objectives of PTA. They should enhance, benefit or meet a specific need of the children and youth within the local unit.
