

PCCPTA 2017-2018 Literacy Event Partnership Application

This year PCCPTA will be partnering with local units to assist with a literacy event. The extended application period ends January 26th!! The event should be held between now and April 27th. All applicants must be a unit in good standing and have paid dues to state. The budget for each partnership from county council will be $100. The goal of this partnership is for PTA units to promote literacy among students, families and the community; support the Media Center with activities that help make students better readers, writers and thinkers; and advance the ideals of learning through the written word.
